01:02:24	Drew Tripp	Colleton County Sheriff's Office dispatches deputies out there. This was in Colleton County South Carolina.
01:02:29		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: First Responders arrive at 10:25 pm
01:02:37	Anne Emerson	Paul's body was found halfway in, halfway out of the actual dog kennels, and that he had been shot with a shotgun. And his mom, Maggie, had been found about 15 ft away, and she had also been shot multiple times.
01:02:41		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: ANNE EMERSON Investigative Reporter WCIV TV
01:02:55	D'Michelle Dupre	The thing that is surprising to me is that Maggie and Paul were both shot with different weapons.
01:02:59		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: D'MICHELLE DUPRE Forensic Pathologist
01:03:04	Gregg Roman	Paul with a shotgun blast to his head, Maggie being shot with A semi-automatic rifle.
01:03:13	Anne Emerson	Why were two different guns used in these murders? Why was a shotgun used to kill Paul, and a rifle used to kill Maggie?
01:03:24	D'Michelle Dupre	Did the killer do that on purpose to make it look like there were two shooters?
01:03:31	Drew Tripp	Colleton County Sheriff's Office very quickly call in for assistance from SLED, the State Law Enforcement Division.
01:03:41	Anne Emerson	The hunting estate in Moselle is a massive property. It's about 1,800 acres, and it goes all the way from Hampton county down to the Colleton county line in the low country.
01:03:55		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Alex tells investigators that he arrived at the Moselle house at around 10:00pm.

01:04:04	Anne Emerson	According to Alex, he was visiting his father just before these murders, and then had come back to Moselle, and had come up on this horrible scene.
01:04:14	D'Michelle Dupre	The coroner puts the time of death at around 9:30 or so, and the call came in at just a little after ten. From the time that the 911 call came in to the time of death, it's very short. I mean, it's 30 minutes or so. Alex and the killer certainly could have crossed paths.
01:04:35		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: By the next morning, news of the murders quickly spreads throughout South Carolina and the media descends on Moselle.
01:04:43	Newsreader (Archive)	The bodies of Paul Murdaugh and his mother were found on the family's sprawling hunting lodge property.
01:04:48	Newsreader (Archive)	A South Carolina community is in shock after a mother and a son of this prominent family in the Charleston area were shot dead. Police confirmed the deaths of Maggie and Paul Murdaugh are being investigated as a double homicide.
01:05:04	Anne Emerson	It starts dawning on pretty much everyone at the same time, Murdaugh, this is Paul Murdaugh. This is the same Paul Murdaugh who we've already been covering for this fatal boat crash involving Mallory Beach.
01:05:18	Linda Hiers	Yeah, I was in disbelief. I--I was in shock. And I guess the rest of Hampton was also.
01:05:20		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: LINDA HIERS Hampton Native
01:05:26	Drew Tripp	The boat crash happened in February 2019. After the death of Mallory Beach, more than two years go by. Flash forward now, it's the spring of 2021. Paul is just now about to have his first hearing in court related to the felony charges against him from that boat crash.

01:05:44	Anne Emerson	There's supposed to be a hearing in three days. And this is a young kid, and he was looking at two decades behind bars.
01:05:52	Drew Tripp	This is a big deal. Finally, some progress in this case that is so close to home for so many people in this small, tight knit community.
01:06:04	Gregg Roman	And then, three days before the criminal hearing, Paul Murdaugh was murdered along with his mother.
01:06:10	Drew Tripp	Immediately, everyone is asking the obvious question - who killed them? Why?
01:06:19	Newsreader (Archive)	We may be making a very gross assumption that the younger Murdaugh, Paul, the--the--the--the son, was the target. What if she was the target and he was the collateral damage?
01:06:39	Drew Tripp	There has been rampant speculation about why they were killed, who could've killed them. And it has led to any number of theories, some with more grounding in reality than others. Everyone is indulging in the conspiracy theories of why this happened.
01:07:03	D'Michelle Dupre	In law enforcement, suspects are our bread and butter. And the person who finds the body is always the number one suspect, as is the spouse of the deceased.
01:07:16	Gregg Roman	Alex Murdaugh was, at that time, a person of interest in the deaths of his wife and his son.
01:07:26		Break 1
01:07:34	D'Michelle Dupre	Almost immediately, law enforcement came out and told the community, "Don't worry, you're not in danger."
01:07:42	Newsreader (Archive)	New clues are coming to light in the very high profile double murder of a mother and son in South Carolina.

01:07:53	Anne Emerson	What everyone took away from the police was that this was a targeted killing, So, why were Paul and Maggie Murdaugh targeted? One of the theories out there has been that this was an incredibly powerful family of prosecutors. Is it possible that one of the hundreds of people that they put behind bars came back for vengeance? Powerful people make powerful enemies.
01:08:07		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: ANNE EMERSON Investigative Reporter WCIV TV
01:08:26		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Law enforcement releases little information about the investigation.
01:08:34	Anne Emerson	The rumors just running rampant. I mean, the speculation absolutely is all over the place. The State Law Enforcement Division, which we call SLED. SLED is not sharing all of the details that we wanna have answers to.
01:08:50	D'Michelle Dupre	We have no information about whether the guns were found or not. There's just a lot of unanswered questions. Kudos to law enforcement, because they have really kept a lid on that, but that is unusual. There's always leaks, and there are not many leaks in this case.

01:09:13	Reporter (Archive)	They did not have--. They had no insurance?
01:09:15	Dick Harpootlian (Archive)	They--they had no insurance.
01:09:17	Drew Tripp	A constant question has been, did he have a hand in the deaths of his wife and son? And that begs the question, why? Why would he kill his wife and son? Or, why would he hire someone to kill his wife and son? What reason would he have to do it? And that has led to all sorts of conjecture.

01:09:46	Kimberly Brant	You hear stories. You don't know how much is true and how much is just someone's speculation.
01:09:49		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: KIMBERLY BRANT Hampton Native
01:09:53	Drew Tripp	It's widely rumored that Maggie wasn't living at the Murdaugh's home in Moselle. She was staying at the family's beach house on Edisto Beach. Adding fuel to that fire was a report that came out several weeks after the murders, alleging Maggie Murdaugh had recently visited with a divorce attorney. Alex Murdaugh's attorneys have denied this, and have even challenged anyone with proof of this to come forward and show them, because they insist that Maggie and Alex had a loving, happy relationship.
01:10:28		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: September 16, 2021 Alex Murdaugh's Attorney
01:10:28	Reporter (Archive)	Were there any problems in Maggie and Alex's Marriage?
01:10:32	Dick Harpootlian (Archive)	Absolutely none. None. And I--. Trust me, I was with them for almost two years.
01:10:38	Kimberly Brant	I have never, for whatever reason, and I can't even explain it myself. I've never thought that Alex hired someone to kill them. I think she and Alex were happy. I don't believe they'll ever find a person to charge for the murders of Maggie and Paul...because I believe it was a hit, and I believe that person is probably not in the community, and he probably was in the wind 30 minutes after it happened.

01:11:15	Anne Emerson	Two weeks after the double murders, The State Law Enforcement Division say they're going to reopen an investigation into a death of a young man from six years ago, and they say that they're opening because it's based on information that they've learned during the investigation of Paul and Maggie Murdaugh's murders.
01:11:37	Newsreader (Archive)	SLED South Carolina Law Enforcement Division has reopened a 2015 case where a young teen, 19 year old Stephen Smith, was found dead on the side of the road.
01:11:54	Reporter (Archive)	Stephen Smith's body was found in the middle of this road. A pathologist said it appeared to be a hit and run.
01:12:06	Kimberly Brant	I was not surprised when I heard that SLED had opened an investigation into Stephen Smith's death right after Paul was murdered, because the rumors were everywhere. I wasn't shocked, not a bit. It just seemed, like, okay, well, we knew this was gonna happen. We all knew this was gonna happen. It is dirty business.
01:12:34		Break 2
01:12:40	Newsreader (Archive)	The death of a 19 year old man, which for years had been unresolved but has now been reopened, based on evidence discovered by South Carolina law enforcement in the Murdaugh double homicide case.
01:12:52	Drew Tripp	Stephen Smith was from Hampton. He lived with his twin sister, Stephanie.
01:12:57	Anne Emerson	Stephanie and Stephen's mom, Sandy, wanted him to thrive. They truly believed that Stephen was made to do really wonderful things.

01:19:47	Michael Duncan	It wasn't about me, honestly. It was about Stephen and his family. Our whole team wanted answers for Stephen's family.
01:19:57		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Someone else is also thinking about Stephen's family.
01:20:03	Anne Emerson	Soon after Stephen had been found dead, Stephen's father got a call from Randy Murdaugh, Alex Murdaugh's brother, asking whether or not he needed representation. They were surprised. To have Randy Murdaugh, who is an extremely powerful personal injury lawyer in this region, reach out to the father of Stephen Smith was extraordinary. In such a small town, possibly that would be the kind of case that they would take on.

01:20:57		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Duncan suspects he is being surveilled.
01:21:05	Michael Duncan	I covered the lower part of the state, and I would travel into Hampton, and get these phone calls, said, "Hey, you're here in Hampton County. Hey what are--what are you over here for?" Or, "What do you need? Are you needing any assistance?" To me, the subtext was, "We know you're here. And we wanna know why you're here. What do you know about what's going on in this county?" It was like, "You don't need to be here." That's the way it was perceived. I would suspect that I was being followed. Certain people in that area, whether it be law enforcement, some other agency, or--or some group, I felt like somebody knew some of my movements. So, it would be very unnerving when I was in Hampton County and get these phone calls, I would, like, be extra careful and mindful. And even when I exited that area, I was always mindful, is somebody following me? Is this car behind me? Has it been back there too long?

You would never get a individual that you could talk to that was there at the time. We are in Hampton County. My opinion is, as far as the Murdaughs, and--them knowing everybody in that county, I believe that they do run that county to an extent. That is my belief...The investigation went cold. 01:31:28	Gregg Roman	She allegedly fell at the Murdaugh family home.
01:31:32	Anne Emerson	This is a hunting lodge. This is an active hunting lodge. Gloria Satterfield was in some type of trip and fall accident on the brick stairs, and these are brick stairs that lead into the hunting lodge.
01:31:47		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Actual 911 Call 9:25 am
01:31:48	Maggie Murdaugh (Archive)	She fell going up the steps, up the brick steps.
01:31:48		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: [SUBTITLES] Maggie Murdaugh: She fell going up the steps, up the brick steps.
01:31:51	911 Operator (Archive)	Okay. So is she outside or inside?

01:32:11	Anne Emerson	We don't know who was there with Gloria Satterfield when she actually fell on those stairs. And we don't know exactly how long she's been there, but we do know that Maggie has discovered her, and that Paul is there.

01:32:42	Linda Hiers	Gloria and I, we became friends when we were, like, four years old. We grew up together, our parents were best friends. And I'm gonna tell ya, it's very rare to have a best friend, okay?

01:33:07	Linda Hiers	Paul was a year old when she started with them. She treated those boys, Buster and Paul, like hers. Anytime they'd call, she'd drop what she was doing and go to 'em. I know that she took care of their home in Hampton. She would have to clean it, and she would have to cook for 'em.

01:33:29	Kimberly Brant	And she did it with a smile on her face and a song in her heart every day. To meet her, you never would know that her walk was what it was.
01:33:39	Linda Hiers	And I always told everyone, I was a sinner and she was a saint. She was a good mom. She was. She loved her boys.
01:33:49	Anne Emerson	Gloria Satterfield had two sons, Bryan and Tony. And as a single working mom, she pretty much raised them on her own.
01:33:58	Linda Hiers	Gloria had to work, point blank. As far as I know, she never got a paid vacation when she was working for the Murdaugh's. If Gloria was sick, Gloria still went to work, because she couldn't afford not to.
01:34:12	Kimberly Brant	Gloria also worked for my half-sister two days a week. I would be in my sister's kitchen, and I would say to Gloria, "Well, Gloria. What's going on today?" And she said, "Paul came in and got a knife out of the kitchen drawer." She said. "Paul what are you doing?" And he said I'm gonna kill that <BLEEP> squirrel." Paul was five years old! "Gonna kill a <BLEEP> squirrel."
01:34:43	Linda Hiers	Gloria did say that he would he would cut up animals, just-- just to be doing it.
01:34:52	Kimberly Brant	Maggie let them do as they pleased, basically. I don't know if she couldn't control them or if she just didn't control them. Paul would talk to you the same way he would talk to one of his friends.
01:35:06	Linda Hiers	I had met Gloria over at Maggie and Alex's house, and she had both of the boys in the van. And Buster, maybe I told him to fasten his seatbelt or something, and that's when he told me, "You don't tell me what to do. I'll tell

01:35:36		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: [SUBTITLES] Paul Murdaugh: Ma'am, can you stop asking all these questions? 911 Operator: I already have them on the way.

01:35:44	Gregg Roman	Gloria was then taken to the hospital, where she sat for a few weeks in intensive care. Her son visiting her, day after day.

01:35:54	Anne Emerson	And she has a traumatic brain injury, hemorrhaging in the brain, and she's got cracked ribs.
01:36:02	D'Michelle Dupre	She had, what's called, a subdural hematoma, which is basically a blood clot under the skull. So, because of that injury, Gloria would suffer some semi-consciousness, eventually unconsciousness.
01:36:10		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: D'MICHELLE DUPRE Forensic Pathologist
01:36:17	Anne Emerson	She's never able to tell her family what happened to her. How did she get on those stairs? How long had she been lying there?
01:36:27	Linda Hiers	When I saw Gloria in the hospital, my daughter went with me, and I realized this is really bad. She's just laying there. She started moving her legs, but then she tried to pull her mask off her face, and I think she was trying to talk to me. I asked my daughter, "Do you believe Ms. Gloria was trying to tell me something?" She says, "Mom, I believe she was."

01:37:13	Anne Emerson	When Gloria Satterfield is in the hospital, Alex Murdaugh never comes to the hospital to go and visit, and Maggie Murdaugh only makes an appearance once. She's been cooking and cleaning for this family for more than two decades.
01:37:22		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: ANNE EMERSON Investigative Reporter WCIV TV
01:37:30	Michael Virzi	Gloria Satterfield spent about three weeks in the hospital and ultimately died there. And apparently was not able to give any kind of statement during her time there.

01:37:34		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: MICHAEL VIRZI Attorney, Legal Ethics Expert
01:37:41	D'Michelle Dupre	I saw the death certificate, and the death certificate says that it was a natural cause, of death. The subdural hematoma is almost always from some type of inflicted trauma, which can--can be from a fall. Now, whether she actually tripped and fell, or whether she was pushed, there's no way to really tell.
01:37:47		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: D'MICHELLE DUPRE Forensic Pathologist
01:38:03	Anne Emerson	Now you've got two different accounts of how she died. Was it natural or was it an accident?
01:38:16	Kimberly Brant	The rumors around the town were that Gloria found Paul's drugs and she was going to tell, and he pushed her down the stairs. When I knew Paul, he was someone that had no regard for anyone.
01:38:16		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: KIMBERLY BRANT Hampton Native
01:38:37	Linda Hiers	It could be a possibility that Paul could've pushed Gloria. But we don't know. We may never know, but anything's a-- a possibility. At the cemetery, for the funeral, I spoke to her brothers, her sisters, her boys, naturally, Tony and Brian. But the one person there that did not speak to me was Maggie. I thought it was kinda odd because she knew that Gloria and I were best friends.

01:39:13	Anne Emerson	Alex Murdaugh comes up to the boys after their mother's funeral and says, "I need to take care of this. Let me take care of this. I need to make this right. She fell on my property, she fell at my house. It was my dog's fault. My dogs did this."
01:39:30	Kimberly Brant	There were no dogs barking in that 911 call. Maggie didn't say anything about tripping over the dogs, she was just on the ground.
01:39:38		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Actual 911 Call 9:24 am
01:39:38	911 Operator (Archive)	Okay. Is she on the ground or is she up near the top?
01:39:38		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: [SUBTITLES] 911 Operator: Okay. Is she on the ground or is she up near the top?
01:39:41	Maggie Murdaugh (Archive)	She's on the ground. She's on the ground.
01:39:41		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: [SUBTITLES] Maggie Murdaugh: She's on the ground. She's on the ground.
01:39:43	Anne Emerson	Now, they've got dogs. They've got kennels. This is a hunting lodge. And these dogs, from what we understand, were pretty rambunctious.
01:39:52	Linda Hiers	Was there dogs around Gloria? Or was there not? That's a million dollar question.
01:40:03	Michael Virzi	Alex said, "I'm responsible for your mother's death. I'm gonna sue myself, we're gonna get you some money from my insurance company." The idea of a lawyer suing himself is as every bit as ridiculous as it sounds. You can't sue yourself. You can't be on both sides of a case. Either as a lawyer on both sides, or as a party on both sides. And he was a lawyer on one side and a party on the other side. Absolutely impermissible as a lawyer to do that.

01:40:37	Gregg Roman	Alex Murdaugh reached out to Tony Satterfield, Gloria Satterfield's son, and said to him, "I have a great attorney who can represent you in a wrongful death lawsuit against my estate."
01:40:43		GRAPHICS ON SCREEN: Actual 911 Call 9:24 am
01:40:51	Michael Virzi	They went and met with his friend, Corey Flemming, and--and a--agreed to be represented by Corey and Alex. And even continued to communicate with Alex as their lawyer during the case.
01:41:04	Anne Emerson	The boys take a back seat because they're told to wait for the settlement. They wait for a year, and they haven't heard anything about the settlement.
01:41:12	Michael Virzi	A local reporter who was looking into the boat crash came across this petition for court approval of a $505,000 settlement in the court records, in the name of Gloria Satterfield. This reporter had wrote an article about it, and apparently that's where the Satterfields first learned about it.
01:41:35	Anne Emerson	What death settlement? What $505,000? They had been told that they were still waiting for that money to come through.
01:41:43	Michael Virzi	I've been a lawyer for 22 years. I've never seen a case where there was this much theft over this long a period of time, and this much suspicious death surrounding one lawyer, this much cover-up. And I've never seen it done with someone with this much power.

01:42:01	D'Michelle Dupre	Five deaths are all associated with the Murdaugh family. Paul and Maggie. You have Mallory Beach, you have Gloria Satterfield, and you have Stephen Smith. And they're all somehow related to the Murdaugh family.
01:42:16	Kimberly Brant	This is a Pandora's box. It's already open and the demons are loose.
